

Spay Memphis is looking for a full-time associate veterinarian to join our team!

Spay Memphis is an established nonprofit HQHV spay/neuter clinic, providing affordable surgeries in our mission to prevent pet overpopulation and reduce shelter euthanasia rates. Since opening in 2005, Spay Memphis has performed over 67,000 surgeries. In 2020 alone, we provided over 7,000 surgeries. Currently open four days a week (Tuesday - Friday), our clinic is equipped with three fully-outfitted surgical stations and a fully-trained staff.

Spay Memphis might be the place for you if you:

- Enjoy a work/life balance
- Are passionate about solving the pet overpopulation problem
- Enjoy working in a fast-paced environment

Job Requirements:

- Must have or be eligible to obtain a license to practice veterinary medicine in Tennessee
- Must have or be eligible to obtain DEA certification for management of controlled substances utilized for patient care in Tennessee
- Experience with HQHVSN surgery a plus but willingness to learn and perform HQHVSN surgical techniques required
- Provide a high quality of care to all patients
- Willingness to perform sterilization surgery on pediatric/juvenile, cryptorchid, in heat, and pregnant animals
- Ability to restrain and humanely handle animals, including difficult to handle and potentially dangerous animals using Fear Free techniques

The ideal candidate would be comfortable performing 30-35 HQHV sterilizations (mixed canine/feline, male/female) per day. All experience levels (including new graduates) will be considered. Training with the staff supervising veterinarian prior to start will be required. Currently we are looking for a start date at the end of August but can be negotiable.

Benefits:

- Competitive salary
- Limited client interaction
- A four-day work week (plus one Monday a month)
- Paid time off
- Public Service Loan Forgiveness Credits for student loans
- Mentorship by our supervising veterinarian
- Generous employee discounts on veterinary care, medications, etc.

To apply, email resume to Executive Director Brittany Pace at bp@spaymemphis.org.
